Find your inner hero — Be a super leader!

After 18 long years, the Central Okanagan School District is ready to “zap” the B.C. Student leadership scene with a leadership conference “mightier than a roaring hurricane!”.. “Holy leadership Batman, is Kelowna ready for B.C.’s best student leaders?”

“Faster than a speeding bullet”, we have assembled a roster of keynote speakers “more powerful than the pounding surf.”

Ian Tyson, Mark Scharenbroich, Hannah Taylor, and David Garibaldi! Ouch!!! That line-up is hotter than kryptonite.

We have also recruited an amazing team of student leaders and advisors who are ‘flaming’ up to provide truth, justice, and the Kelowna way of spirit and leadership.

It will be our pleasure to provide a program including:

- Small-group sessions with practical applications
- A variety of student and advisor activity and connection opportunities
- Central Okanagan culture and hospitality

We have super plans and heroic dreams that are taking shape to make this BCSLC the best that it can be!

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS Holy Batman What a Lineup!

Ian Tyson

The original Superman, Ian’s high octane presentation is sure to keep you in stitches and leave you with words and thoughts to live by. Ian will also be our conference “cheerleader!”

Mark Scharenbroich

Without question, Mark is the best motivational educational speaker in North America – funny and entertaining, Mark will most importantly inspire you! First time back at BCSLC in years!

Hannah Taylor

Founder of the Lady Bug Foundation, Winnipeg native, Hannah Taylor is a true Canadian superhero. Hannah cares deeply about the plight of the homeless and she will bring her message of being a super leader to our conference.

David Garibaldi

In the studio, David creates images that tell an inspirational story, but when David paints on stage, he is the inspirational story. You must see this amazing performance to believe it! He is recently off tour with the Blue Man Group.
